

Plain Jane Success Story

Plain Jane, I'm sending via US Mail a photo of the Cook's Station, a fantastic cookware shop here in Greenville SC, where I live. Last week I visited them and they asked me to rewrite their reorder for both Chocolat and Colours group, which have sold well. Order came to $1000. Please be sure it goes out ASAP when new shipment arrives.

Both groups are featured in the very center of the store w/ a great display. Last evening they hosted Tyler Florence, Chef w/ 3 TV shows on the Food Network, for his new book release. He did a cooking demonstration outdoors under a tent for approx 300 VERY enthusiastic fans for 1 hr. then signed books for several hours while people browsed around the store, sipping wine.

Can't wait to here how the store did. Couldn't have asked for better visual of your products!
Thanks so much,
Kathy
